Attorneys' fees and costs decision based on stipulation of fact

Edward M. Kraus, Chicago, IL, for petitioner. Lara A. Englund, Washington, DC, for respondent.

MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

On March 26, 2015, the parties filed a stipulation of fact in which they agreed on an appropriate amount for attorneys' fees and costs in this case.

In accordance with the General Order #9 requirement, petitioner asserts that she did not incur any costs in pursuit of her petition. Petitioner submitted an application for attorneys' fees and costs to respondent on January 26, 2015. During informal discussions, respondent raised objections to certain items in petitioner's application. Based on these objections, petitioner available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision is filed, petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact such information prior to the document's disclosure. If the special master, upon review, agrees that the identified material fits within the banned categories listed above, the special master shall redact such material from public access.

amends her request for attorneys' fees and costs to $22,500.00. Respondent does not object to this amount. The undersigned finds this amount to be reasonable. Accordingly, the court awards $22,500.00, representing reimbursement for attorneys' fees and costs. The award shall be in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and Edward Kraus, Esq. of the Law Office of Chicago Kent in the amount of $22,500.00.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment herewith.²

IT IS SO ORDERED.
